Westside writers did extraordinarily well with this year's Scholastic Art and Writing Awards. In fact, we have so many winners (more than 30) that it is impossible to list them all! See the notice in the display case near English land on the second floor. A special shout-out goes to Gold Key recipients Annelise Nauman for her critical essay, Lenny Witt for flash fiction, Minnie Liang for flash fiction, Rachel Labi for journalism and poetry, Margaret Prokopy for poetry, and Annabel Prokopy for her short story. All advance to national competition with a chance to be honored at Carnegie Hall in New York City. A super special shout-out goes to Lenny, who received is a Voices of Inspiration nomination as a "best of show" type of honor. She will read her work entitled "A Transcendentalist Study" during the awards ceremony, which will take place at Butler University on March 22. Congratulations to all!

Lost and Found will be cleaned and cleared over spring break. Please pick up your lost items on your way out the door for break.

Junior High GSA will be meeting this Friday in room 1401. We will spend this fabulous Friday discussing issues and changes we want to see. As always, new members are always welcome and feel free to bring your lunch!

MATH CONTEST: the final IML (#6) will be held during lunch on Tuesday after break (3/24) in Mrs. Porterfield's room (#3105)

It's still not too late to sign up for a choir audition for next year. If you saw Cinderella last weekend, you saw some great things happening in the music department. Check the bulletin board by the Jr. High gym for more info!

WL Climate is partnering with teams from Harrison and Jeff to hold clothing swaps in all 3 schools this month. By swapping clothes you can reduce your waste and get clothes that are new-to-you for free! Come Friday, March 13 in the club room before school or at lunch. Take as many "new" clothes as you bring!

Science Fair: The in-person science fair scheduled for Friday night has been canceled. Participants will be submitting a video instead. Check your school email for an update from Ms. Croy.

The Sophomore Class is selling West Side sweatpants, water bottles, and stickers. Pick up an order form on the desk next to Mrs. Mills' room (2105), fill it out, attach the money, and turn it in to Mrs. Mills. Sweatpants cost $25, water bottles cost $5, stickers cost $1, and all three items together cost $25.
